

Satellite radio must be allowed to present program material of all types. Satellite radio is becoming essential listening, as local radio and television programming quality have degraded to the point that the only choice is satellite radio. Allow the industry to compete fairly and effectively. Do not limit program material.